Live Beyond the Couch and

CREATE A BUSINESS YOU LOVE

You've run a successful practice for a while, and:

YOU ARE READY FOR MORE

You have a desire to explore what else is out there. You don't want to stop your personal growth at your degree. It's time someone reminded you of your potential.

YOU NEED CLARITY

You know it's time to hone in on offering a cohesive brand experience, instead of piecing your brand together. You want to look like the first option for your dream clients.

TIME FOR CHANGE- $$

You know there are ways to make money using your skills that will allow you to work beyond providing counseling services. But where do you begin?

IT'S TIME TO INCREASE

You feel the urge to open doors for other mental health professionals to work alongside you, so you can serve even more clients.

YOU NEED TO BE STRATEGIC

You need to offer more accessible ways to work with you, and grow your income, so you can scale your private practice.

Growth Beyond the Couch

It sounds like you are ready to GROW!!!

You have already created a strong foundation for your private practice, but now it's time to grow beyond just offering counseling services.

Building your business beyond the couch means leveraging all of that expertise into something big and beautiful. You have seen folks do it so you know it's possible.

You probably have so many ideas, but don't know where to start. It's also important that you don't waste precious time and moment on doing things that have you feel like you are spinning your wheels!

It's time to take stock of where you are so far, create a clear vision of your future self and then create a custom strategy to get you there.

Visit HERE to learn more about Beyond the Couch, my private coaching program that would be perfect for you.

An intimate, individualized coaching program with a mentor who has served mental health entrepreneurs for over a decade.

LET ME HELP YOU

become a more balanced private practice owner.

PERFECTEDPRACTICE.COM